Gathering the Harvest of Our Youth

The earth has yielded up its precious gift of grain. The world may suffer many changes, but these things remain: the glory of the harvest and the bounty of the soil. Rich reward for weary hours of hard and patient toil.

Life, too, has its harvestings when youth's bright days have flown. Down the furrows of the years we reap what we have sown. Bitterness or happiness. Remorse or sweet content. Too late then to sigh for years gone by and hours misspent.

Scatter then the seeds of friendship and of charity . . . and for each good seed you cast you'll reap abundantly . . . Sow in love and when at last the golden days depart . . . Gather sheaves of happiness: the harvests of the heart.

ACTIVITIES

Activities enhance the growing cycle of the student.

HARVEST HOEDOWN IS

It's a degrading sight when seniors still do dirty work.

With a little free advertising and a lot of work the hoedown paid off.

Robyn and Kim were caught unaware while making the "Coin Toss" sign.

Beth is busy as a beaver preparing a sign for the hoedown.

HARVEST HOEDOWN

The Harvest Hoedown proved to be bountiful and the staff earned more money than they had expected. But earn it they did! The 1981 and 1982 yearbook staffs, Mrs. Forbes and the P.T.O. worked many long hours trying to prepare and organize the hoedown. It all paid off and turned out to be an enjoyable evening with something for everybody. Cakewalks, Jello-Eating Contests, an Arm-Wrestling Contest, Squirt the Teacher, and Cream the Teacher were some of the Favorites at the hoedown. "The County Rangers" of Goreville set the mood for the hoedown with some good ol' Country-Western music. It was truly a time to relax, take it easy, and enjoy one another's company.

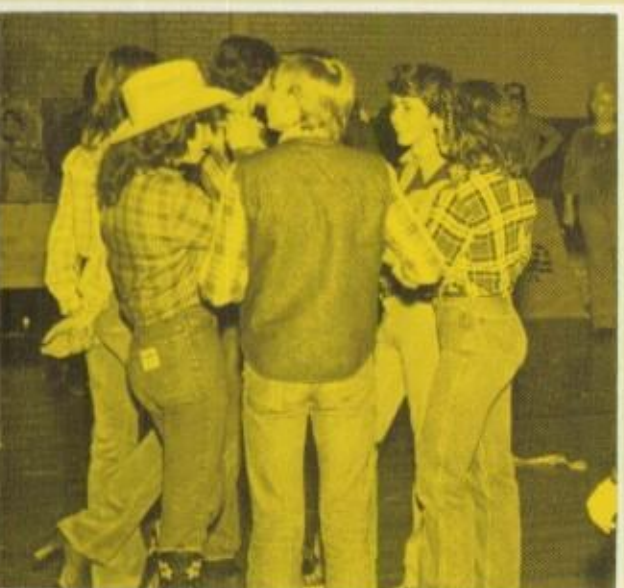

Robin still manages a smile while the rest of the staff was about to go nuts.

Mike turns on his southern charm for Beth.

Just sittin' around shootin' the bull.

A time for socializing and gettin' acquainted with one another.

A bunch of happy homemakers with their awards.

Please excuse my appearance . . .

A BIG SUCCESS!

Dart-throwing Jimmy Hollis displays his talents for the crowd.

These innocent teachers had no idea how silly they looked. They do now.

Alumna, Minty Murphy, had wanted to do that for 4 years.

Look Ma! I won!

This band is loved by countless millions and has a hit in England.

Dignified Bobby Green swears off jello-eating contests indefinitely.

Elizabeth made sure she didn't get lost in the cake walk.

I bet I got this job because I look so good in the apron.

If you've got the money, Honey. I've got the time...

Danny asked Jim Davis if they couldn't work out some sort of agreement.

These four used to be close friends.

YOU MAKE ME BELIEVE IN MAGIC

Students entered a magical world with Dr. Strange.

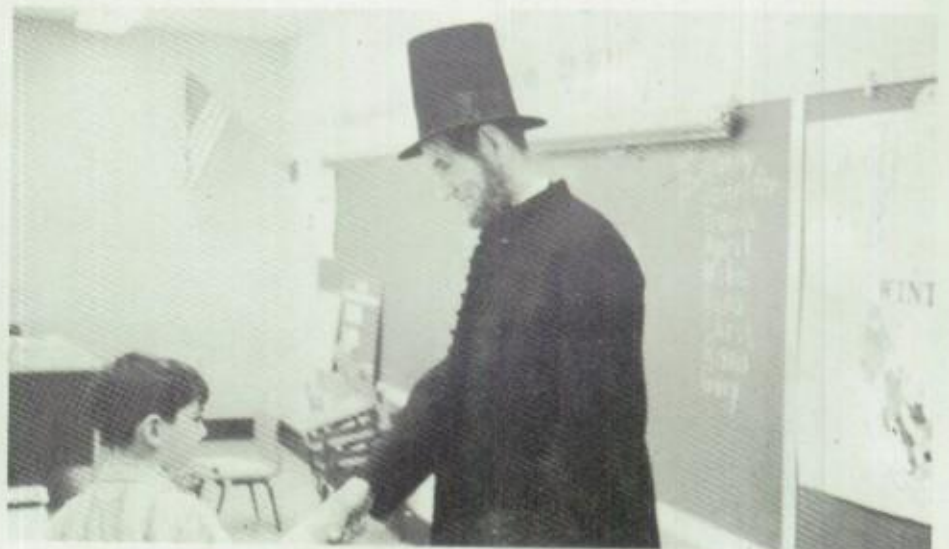

"I hope he knows what he is doing!"

FAMOUS MEN VISIT C.O.H.S.

"I just hope I don't sneeze!"

"For a man who's been dead 115 years, you look really good!"

GETTING A CHARGE OUT OF LIFE

"You look so sweet upon the seat of a bicycle built for two . . ."

It was a hair-raising experience for Melinda!

You take it. No you take it.

"Dub?"

"This is our queen?"

We won!

Jump shot boogie!

"Coach, I don't feel so good!"

"Ethel, honey, have you heard..."

Move your lips just like this.

A SONG FOR YOU

*"I'll love you in a place

I'll love you for my life, you are a friend of mine . . .*

long after the curtains have been closed and decorations have been taken down, the memories of Friday, December 12, will remain with us. The Trojans, who were victorious over Thompsonville, increased the spectators enthusiasm as lights were dimmed in preparation for the 1980-81 Homecoming Court. Following the procession of class attendants and their escorts, the senior queen candidates began to enter. Lady-in-Waiting, Miss Brenda Dahmer was escorted by Bruce Hosmon. They were followed by Maid of Honor, Mary Glasco and her escort, Jeff Beasley. After the entrance of the flower girls, crown bearer, and basketball bearer, Her Majesty Miss Stacia Furlow was escorted to her place at the Queen's throne by Marc Killman. She was crowned by Louie Johnson and Ron Riley, members of the C. O. Trojans.

"And when my life is over, remember when we were together, and we were alone and I was singing my song for you . . ."

HER MAJESTY MISS STACIA FURLOW

Miss Stacia Sue Furlow, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. William Coleman and Mr. & Mrs. Jimmy Furlow, was crowned 1980-81 Homecoming Queen. Stacia was escorted by Marc Killman, son of Mr. & Mrs. Rayburn Killman. Stacia chose "Sweet Music Man" as the song to enter in on.

Stacia is known for her unique sense of humor and ability to get along with students at C.O.H.S. Stacia enjoys horseback riding, volleyball, and most of all her position on the 1980-81 Trojan cheerleading squad.

Marc enjoys anything as long as there are people around to enjoy it with. His hobbies include motorcycle riding, hunting, fishing, and cruising town in his Laredo.

MAID OF HONOR MARY ELLEN GLASCO

Miss Mary Ellen Glasco, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Gerald Glasco, was escorted by Jeffrey Dale Beasley, son of Mr. & Mrs. Dale Beasley. Mary selected "Could I Have This Dance" to be played.

Mary likes to sing, play the piano, ride three-wheelers, help her father on the farm, and be with friends. Mary likes being involved in all kinds of activities, including volleyball and softball.

Jeff prefers to play basketball, go four-wheeling, and hunt to pass the time. He also manages his own hog operation while being a co-owner of B & J Livestock.

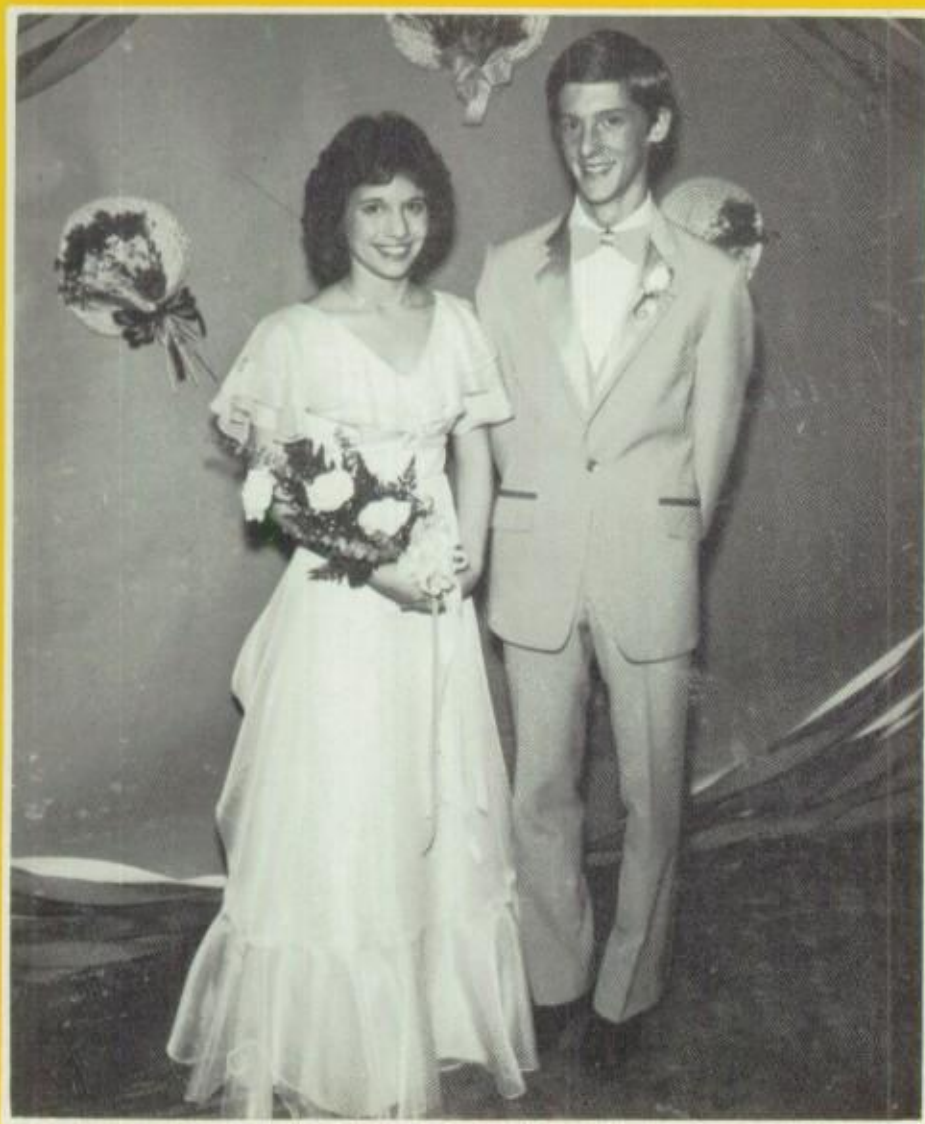

LADY IN WAITING BRENDA DAHMER

Miss Brenda Dahmer, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Carl Dahmer, was escorted by Bruce Daniel Hosmon, son of Mr. & Mrs. Gerald Hosmon. Brenda chose "She Believes in Me" to be played.

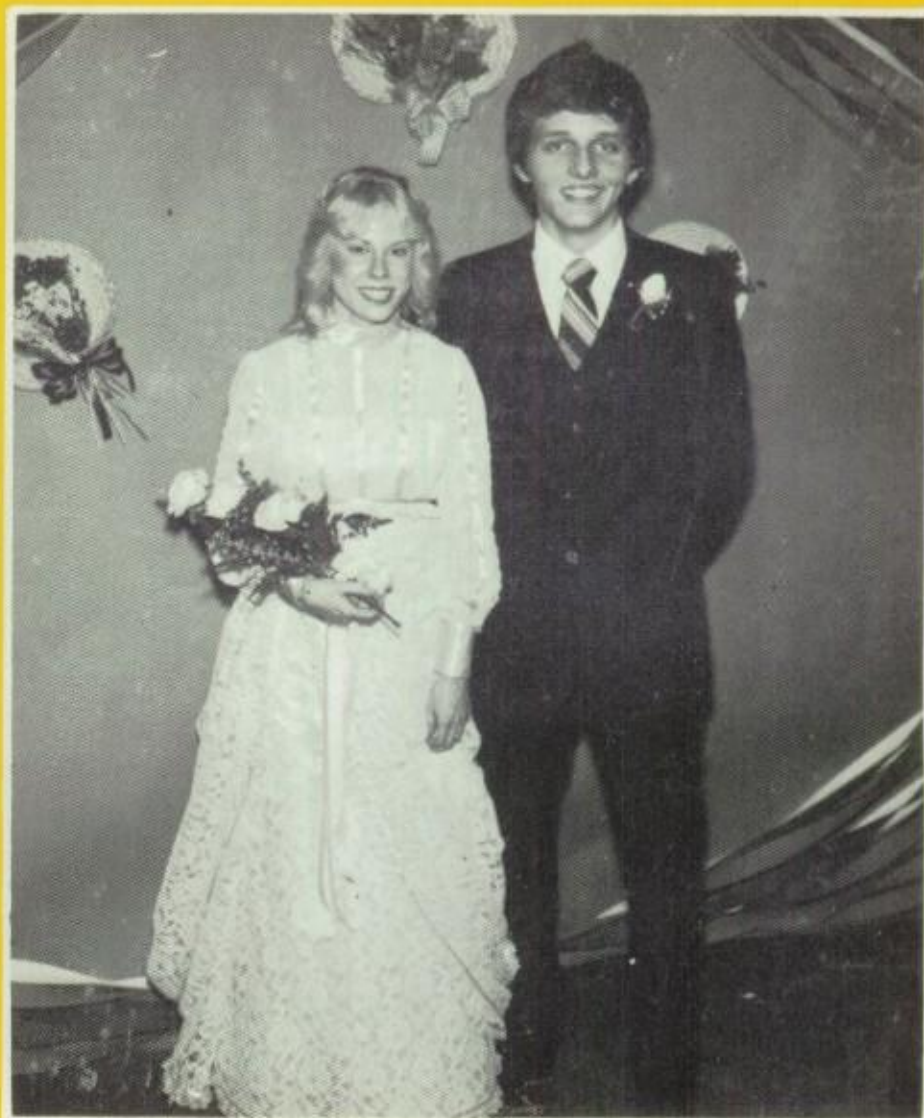

Brenda enjoys riding her three-wheeler, riding horses, and playing volleyball. Brenda also spends a lot of her time with her animals and helps out on her family's farm.

Bruce spends his free time hunting, fishing, and playing basketball. Like Brenda, Bruce also spends much of his time working on the farm and is co-owner of B & J Livestock.

DIRECTOR — KEITH JOHNS

Under the direction of Mr. Keith Johns, the 1981 Jr.- Sr. play was presented to Crab Orchard students, teachers, and parents on April 28. Both matinee and an evening performance were given.

The cast and Mr. Johns put in many long hours staging, learning lines, and figuring out how to relay the lines to the audience. Stress was present because the cast had only four weeks to practice before the final presentations. Even with the limited time to practice, the play was a success and the crowds at both performances seemed well-pleased with the results.

"WE'VE GOT TONIGHT"

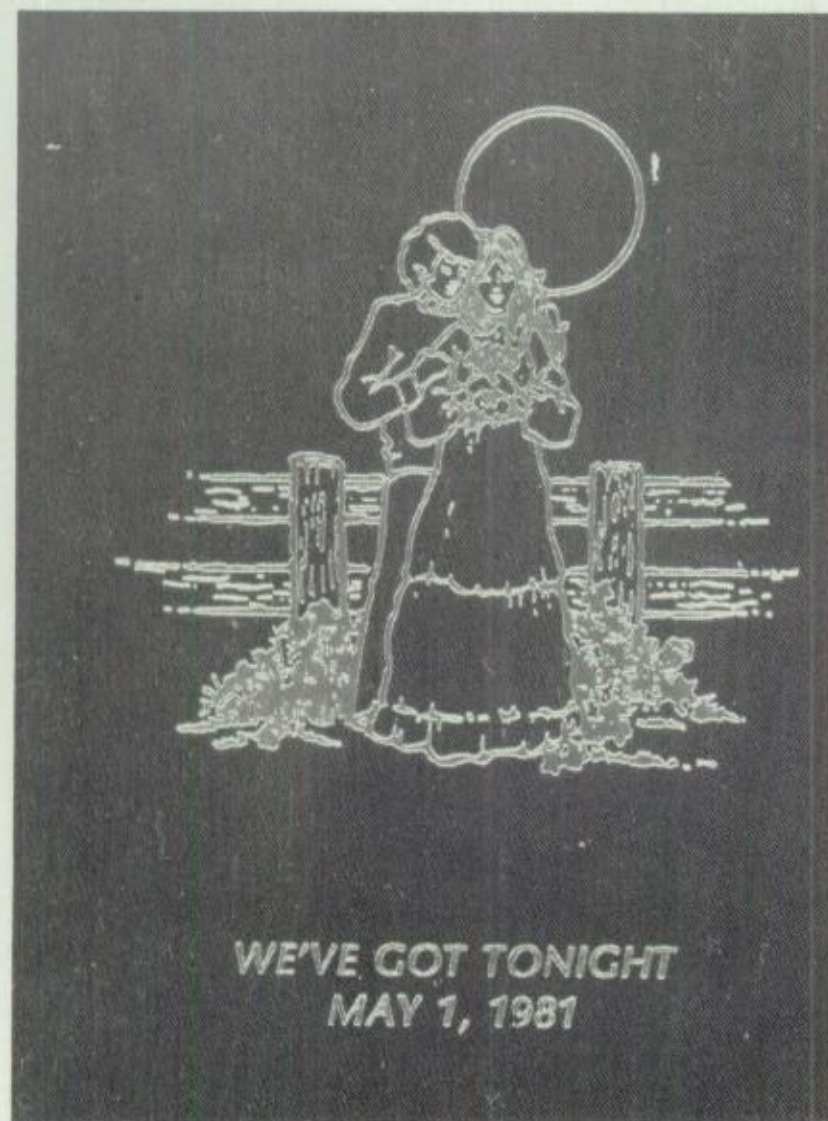

I know it's late, I know you're weary
I know your plans don't include me
Still here we are, both of us lonely
Longing for shelter from all that we see
Why should we worry, No one will care girl
Look at the stars so far away

We've got tonight who needs tomorrow
We've got tonight babe
Why don't you stay

Deep in my soul I've been so lonely
All of my hopes fading away
I've longed for love
Like everyone else does

So there it is girl
I've said it all now
And here we are babe what do you say
I know it's late, I know you're weary
I know your plans don't include me
Still here we are, both of us lonely
Both of us lonely

We've got tonight who needs tomorrow
Let's make it last
Let's find a way
Turn out the light, come take my hand now
We've got tonight babe
Why don't you stay

1980-81 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

A crumpled announcement, a corsage pressed by time and memories, and silly prophecies that never came true will be reminders of a tender age when even Junior-Senior Proms were big events. Visions of the excitement of the day and night of prom will be filled with smiles, laughter, and perhaps tears. As memory begins to fail, it is only fair that the accounts be recorded.

May 1, 1981, marked the date of the Junior-Senior Prom. Anxious escorts and dates knew they were in the right place after reading the welcome sign at Holiday Inn in Marion. Upon arrival, pictures were taken; after which, the handsomely dressed couples proceeded to the Crab Orchard Room for the festivities. The tables were splendidly decorated with maroon and silver, and goblets of maroon and pink roses which were given to all Junior and Senior girls. After a delicious meal, the wills and prophecies were read following the formal dance. There was magic in the air when "We've Got Tonight" began to play. The words of the theme seemed to set the mood as the swish of dresses swept through the room.

After the last song was played, there was a rush of people who wanted to change into casual clothes for the remainder of the evening. Then one by one, cars began to leave the Inn's parking lot and head for Marion Civic Center and the special showing of "California Suite." Popcorn and other refreshments were available to those who had worked up an appetite at the dance. At the movie, many chose the balcony seats where there were yawns, yells, giggles, and a crazed camera nut running about.

Herrin Bowling Alley once again gave everyone the run of their facilities. However, some problems did arise, the struggle of finding the right size shoe, an available lane, and coordination to remain standing after releasing the ball if you threw it in the right direction. A lot of fun was had in this relaxed atmosphere. It could have been partly due to the fact everyone was getting a bit tired and a little silly. Here is where everyone parted company. Some went to breakfast, some went home, and the destinys of some are unknown. No matter what the end of this story was, up to this point, the Juniors provided the Seniors with a fun-filled night. Perhaps when we look back, Junior-Senior Prom will be as big an event in the future as in the past from our days at C.O.H.S.

COACH RICHARD POWERS

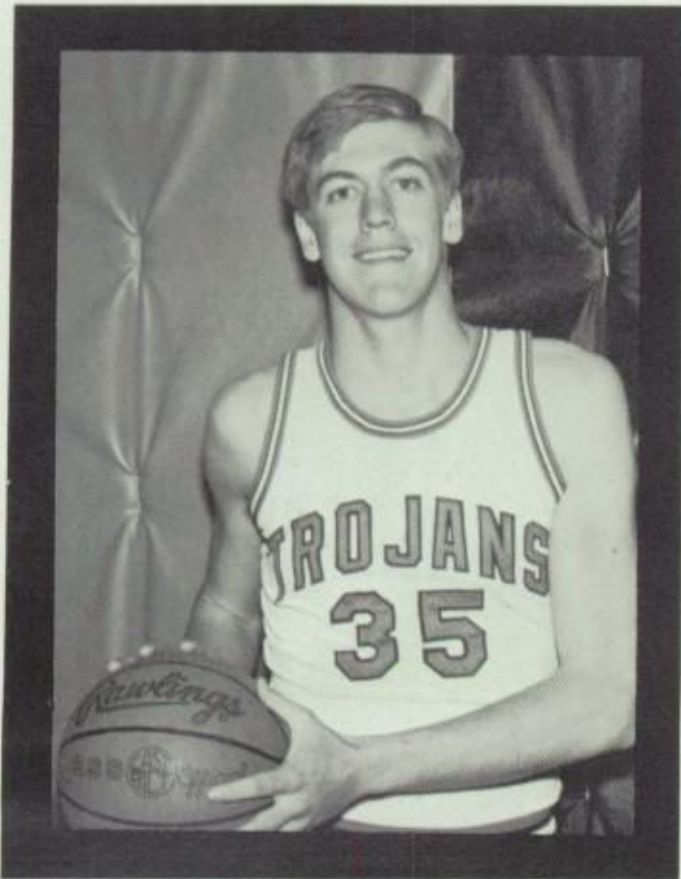

When a coach has a losing season, he often will talk of building character in his season's final analysis. This year's team proves you can be successful and still display the character all admire in high school athletes.

Each player knew their role, whether it be scorer, playmaker, or rebounder, and fulfilled it unselfishly and without conceit.

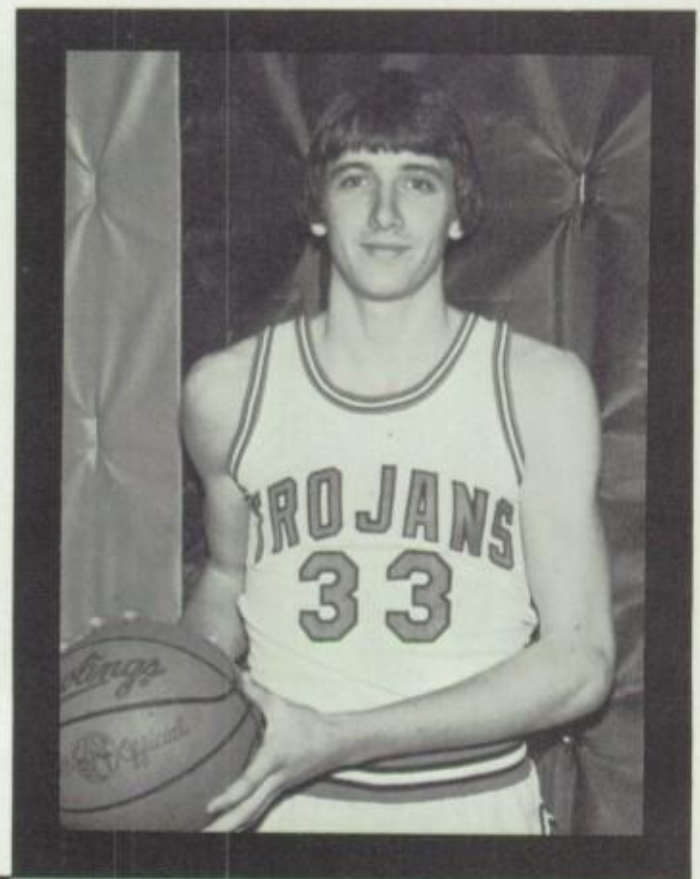

Successful — 20-5 — the only team in Southern Illinois to be in the top ten defensively and offensively, second place finishes at Meridian and SIC Tournaments, along with the Sportsmanship award at SIC.

The best way to describe the 80-81 Trojans is how most opposing coaches evaluated our team, "They play with intelligence."

COACH

This season marks the sixth year of volleyball competition at Crab Orchard High School. As I look back over this past season, I am reminded of several things. I remember the solid starters whose confidence and ability were so strong. I remember the many times when players from the bench came into the game and "saved the day." I remember the ace serves so proficiently done. I remember the lengthy volleys. I am also reminded of the enthusiasm representative of both squads. What neat memories I have of the 1980 Volleyball season.

The yearbook is finished now and while the Staff may not have succeeded in making all the changes they had wanted to, they feel they have made a pathway for following yearbook staffs. With great pride in the job they did, the 1981 Trojan Staff leaves C.O.H.S. The 1981 Staff would like to thank the 1982 Staff for doing more work than was expected of them, but most of all Mrs. Forbes who has to go through all of this again . . . and again . . . and again . . .

Dana Forbes — Advisor

The junior staff worked hard to prove their dedication this year. They took a lot of pressure off the senior staff when there were deadlines to be met, things to be run off, and other odd jobs to be done.

The future for the 1982 Staff holds the challenge of producing a yearbook that will record 1982 just as it was. Good luck.

SENIORS

Lo, the fields have ripened to the harvest, and the fruitful earth has fulfilled the promise of the Spring. The laborer's work is done; he has planted, and he has gathered. Season follows season, each clothed in its own radiance. From bud to blossom, from flower to fruit, from seed to bud — the beauty of the earth unfolds. From the harvest of the soil let us garner a new harvest of the heart and mind — a harvest of the firm resolve to be the careful husbandmen of our best gifts and opportunities; a harvest of reverence for the wondrous power of life and work in things that grow in the soul of man; a harvest of gratitude for every good which we enjoy.
